ARTICLE 4: SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY

The Company and the Union are committed to providing employees with a drug-free and alcohol-free workplace. It is our goal to protect the health and safety of employees and to promote a productive workplace, and to protect the reputation of the Company, Union and employees. Consistent with these goals, the Company prohibits the use, possession, distribution or sale of drugs, drug paraphernalia or alcohol on Company premises. Insofar as permitted by state and federal law, any employee who fails to tender the agency fee or periodic dues uniformly required shall be notified in writing of the employee's delinquency. A copy of such communication shall be provided to the Company, and the Company shall take final action to terminate the employee for cause if the delinquency is not resolved within thirty (30) calendar days of the Company receiving communication. Upon receipt of such communication from the Union, the Company shall suspend the employee without pay until the delinquency is resolved or the employee is terminated for cause. Suspensions and terminations of this nature are not subject to the grievance procedure.

It is understood by and between the parties hereto that as a necessary condition of continued employment, employees shall be subject to investigation for security clearance or national agency check and/or unescorted entry authorization under regulations prescribed by the Department of Defense, or other agencies of the United States Government on government work, and that denial of such clearance and/or unescorted entry authorization by such governmental agency shall be cause for release from the Company due to inability to meet job requirements.

It is understood that there shall be no liability on the part of the Company for any release growing out of the denial of clearance and/or unescorted entry authorization by the United States Government.

The Company will reinstate the seniority of an employee whose denied security clearance is reinstated by the Federal Government. A non-probationary employee who loses his security clearance or site access for any reason will not lose his seniority until final adjudication of his appeal. Any employee whose seniority is reinstated under this provision will be reinstated in his previously held occupational title.

ARTICLE 9: ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement expresses the complete understanding of the parties on the subject of wages, hours of labor, and conditions of employment. However, this Agreement may be amended in writing by mutual agreement at any time. For the purpose of this Agreement the contract includes the C130J Maintenance and Aircrew Training System (JMATS) at Little Rock Air Force Base.

Due to the critical nature of the C-130 JMATS mission it is understood and agreed that U.S. Air Force personnel and Company engineering and supervisory personnel will be required to provide operational support in wage rate classification listed in ARTICLE 28, as deemed necessary by the Company, in support of the C-130 JMATS national defense mission. The Company recognizes its obligation not to abuse the normal assignment of regularly scheduled work to the appropriate classifications.

The Union acknowledges the responsibilities of the Company's operation as they are related to the support of the United States Air Force objectives. The parties realize the United States Air Force may, from time to time, make unusual and immediate demands in conjunction with support requirements. Consequently, all personnel may be called upon to perform whatever duties are required for adequate performance of support requirements for the mission and operational capabilities for C-130 JMATS.

ARTICLE 10: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1: Safety

The Company and the Union shall use every effort to assure compliance with established State and Federal safety and health rules. The union will designate its steward(s) as the representative(s) to any Company sponsored safety committees or councils, at the site.

Section 2: Change of Address

Employees are responsible for notifying the Company of their proper mailing address and current phone number. Laid off employees are also responsible to notify the Company of their proper mailing address and current phone number to maintain recall rights. The Company shall be entitled to rely upon its records and shall be held harmless for any action that may arise out of said reliance.

Section 3: Availability

The union recognizes that due to the vital National Defense mission of the C-130 JMATS it is essential that all mission essential personnel report in emergency situations. However, no job classifications covered under this agreement will be considered "mission essential". In the event of a vital mission essential circumstance the Company and Union agree to meet and discuss.

Section 4: Resignation

Employees are requested to give at least ten (10) working days' notice of intent to resign.

Section 5: Short-Term (ECP/CCP) Employees

Any employee hired for ECP/CCP work will be hired for the hours and length of service as specified at the time of their employment offer. This will be utilized as long as there are no employees on layoff status capable of performing the work and the union will be notified in advance of the number of employees hired, classifications involved, and the duration of employment for each ECP/CCP employee.

Section 6: Part-Time Employees

A part-time employee is defined as an-employee who will receive a minimum of sixteen (16) hours, but less than forty (40) hours per workweek, unless otherwise defined by mutual agreement of all parties.

Part-time employees will be scheduled in advance of working. All overtime will be offered to full-time employees before any part-time employees are eligible to work overtime. Part-time employees will be scheduled for work utilizing current scheduling processes and procedures in place associated with the scheduling of those positions.

The total of part-time employees will not exceed ten percent (10%) of the current workforce by job category. This may be exceeded at any time by mutual agreement should the company provide a legitimate business need. Should any position have less than ten (10) employees, one (1) employee may be part-time. If any position should have only one (1) employee, that employee will be full-time. If there are ten (10) or more employees, normal rounding rules shall apply as to the number of part-time employees.

Part-time employees may be offered the option to convert to a full-time position but only in the order of seniority and only in the event of a full-time job opening in their classification. Full-time employees will be given first opportunity, in accordance with seniority, for any available part-time positions. Also, subject to the mutual agreement of all parties, a full-time employee may elect to transfer to a part-time position if a current part-time employee (based on seniority) agrees to transfer to the available full-time position.

All articles in the Agreement will apply for part-time employees with the following exceptions:

- Part-time employees will receive fifty percent (50%) of the vacation and personal time off paid to full-time employees (in accordance with ARTICLE 24 and ARTICLE 25).
- Part-time employees will only receive four (4) hours of holiday pay for each paid holiday.
- Part-time employees will be eligible for the benefit plans listed in ARTICLE 27, however, they will receive a Medical Opt-Out Credit of one-hundred and thirty dollars ($130) per week in lieu of any Health and Welfare benefits.
- Part-time employees will receive the same bereavement leave as full-time employees.

Part-time employees will be eligible for any contractual seniority rights as specified.

If a full-time employee is offered a part-time position in lieu of layoff, they may accept the layoff (thus refusing the part-time position) without affecting their recall rights in accordance with ARTICLE 17.

Section 7: Bulletin Boards

The Company will provide 1 Bulletin Board for the posting of Union notices.

Only notices pertinent to the Union at the respective facility (notices concerning Union meetings, Union elections, results of Union elections, etc.), which have been authorized by a designated Union official, will be posted.

Section 8: Employee Assistance Plan (EAP)

The Company will continue to provide Employee Assistance Plan. Contact information will be provided for posting on the bulletin boards.

Section 9: Performance of Work

Supervisors and other non-bargaining unit employees will not normally perform the duties of employees in the bargaining unit, except in emergency situations, for currency, or for the purpose of instructing employees. Supervisors or other non-represented employees are not to perform any bargaining unit work solely to prevent a bargaining unit employee from earning overtime.

Bargaining unit employees may be utilized on a temporary basis to perform similar work at other locations in accordance with Standard Company policy and practices and with mutual agreement from the Union. At no time will the utilization of off-site employees prevent the current full-time employee from receiving 40 hours of work, nor, by classification will the use of outside employees occur while employees are on layoff status.

Section 10: Dress Code

Employees are expected to present a neat and professional appearance at all times. A mustache/beard is permitted as long as it is neatly trimmed and well groomed.

Section 12: Abnormal Plant Shutdowns

The Company will compensate employees, who are sent home, as directed by the Company, for those periods of time when safety stand-downs, government/customer shutdowns, government mandated holidays, periods of national mourning, inoperable training devices, or other Acts of God necessitate a partial workday(s) or temporary closing of facilities.

Section 13: Eligibility to Participate in Company Awards Program

Represented employees may receive awards under the Company's Awards Program. The design and administration of the program as well as the amount and frequency of awards are solely at the discretion of the Company and are not subject to the bargaining process or the grievance procedure. The Company may terminate the "Awards Program" at any time.

Section 14: Travel

Employees will be reimbursed for lodging, mileage, and meals according to the Company travel policy. The Company policy provides travel/accident insurance.

Section 15: Lead

The term "Lead" does not designate a job classification but identifies an employee whose assigned duties are to assist the supervisor in select program/project work and is responsible for instructing and aiding a group of employees. The "Lead" may be required to review completed work and direct corrections as required, advise the supervisor in maintaining a smooth flow of work, maintain records, formulate training plans, and implement new training philosophy. The "Lead" may be required to report to the supervisor the reason for failure to maintain the flow of work.

The "Lead" will be appointed by the Company in its discretion.

Leads will receive Lead Premium pay above their regular hourly base rate at three dollars and twenty-five cents ($3.25) per hour.

ARTICLE 11: NEW JOBS

When new bargaining unit jobs are required that cannot be properly encompassed within an existing job specialty, the Company will notify the Union of the requirements and will endeavor to discuss with the Union the rate of pay prior to the Company establishing the new classification and rate of pay. The Union shall have thirty (30) days from the date of establishment in which to challenge the rate of pay. If necessary, this matter is subject to the grievance procedure up to and including arbitration.

The Company has the right to determine the job qualifications. Copies of job descriptions and required qualifications shall be retained in the Local Site Manager's Office and shall be made available to employees upon request. The Union shall be advised, in writing, of any revisions or modifications of job descriptions or qualifications.

ARTICLE 12: TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

The Union will be given advance notice of any intended technological changes affecting the work of the bargaining unit. An opportunity will be given to the Union to discuss the impact of such changes with the Company prior to their implementation.

Employees affected by the technological changes will be given training applicable to conduct student instruction to include software, hardware, and training devices.

ARTICLE 13: PROMOTIONS

The Company will endeavor to transfer employees to higher paid positions from within the bargaining unit, if available employees have the skill and ability necessary to do the work. If two (2) or more employees are eligible and express an interest, selection will be made on the basis of seniority and qualifications. If two (2) employees are qualified, seniority must be the prime selection factor.

The Company will notify the Union of any openings to be filled within the Bargaining Unit prior to filling the position.

Promoted employees will be considered on probation in the new position for ninety (90) days after upgrading. During this period, the Company may, at its discretion, reclassify the employees to their former occupations if it is determined by the Program Manager or his designee that the employee is not meeting the qualification for that job classification. Likewise, within ninety (90) days of being assigned to the new job classification, an employee may choose to return to his former job classification without prejudice.

The Company may temporarily promote an employee to perform in a higher paid classification. The employee shall receive the rate of the higher occupation if he works for a minimum of four (4) hours per day in that classification. Employees selected for temporary promotion will be selected on the basis of qualifications as determined by the Company.

ARTICLE 14: DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINARY ACTION

The Company shall have the right to discipline employees for just and proper cause by reprimand, suspension without pay or discharge for violation or infraction of the Company rules. The Company agrees to notify the Union, in writing, of any action taken under this section.

ARTICLE 15: SENIORITY

Section 1: Probationary Period

Any employee who has been in the employment of the Company for ninety (90) consecutive calendar days shall be considered a Seniority Employee of the Company.

During the probationary period the employee shall be subject to layoff, discipline, or discharge at the sole discretion of the Company, and such action shall not be subject to the grievance procedure. The probationary period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Company and the Union.

- d. New positions or assignments will be offered to the most senior employee for that position or assignment as outlined in ARTICLE 11: NEW JOBS.
- e. Additional qualifications will not be the cause of displacement of other bargaining unit members from their regularly assigned work nor will it be the cause for a reduction in force.

Section 3: Loss of Seniority

All seniority of any employee shall terminate if the employee:

- a. Resigns.
- b. Is discharged for violation of Company Rules.
- c. Is on layoff status in excess of twenty-four (24) months.

ARTICLE 16: EMPLOYEES TRANSFERRED OUT OF THE BARGAINING UNIT

An employee who has established seniority rights within their respective bargaining unit and who is transferred to a position outside of their respective bargaining unit not covered by this Agreement shall retain seniority rights for period of ninety (90) days.

An employee who is permanently transferred to a Company facility other than their respective site, will lose bargaining unit seniority rights. However, the employee transferring into a bargaining unit shall maintain their years of service with the company/contract for purposes of benefits based on years of service only.

ARTICLE 17: LAYOFFS / RECALLS

Section 1: Layoff

When it becomes necessary to reduce the number of employees in a classification, senior employees may be offered the opportunity to accept a layoff status before the employees in the classification shall be laid off in accordance with their seniority. Senior employees will be provided bump rights to equal or lower classifications, if they meet all the requirements of the position and are able to demonstrate within ten (10) workdays the skills required to perform the job. With mutual agreement the timeframe can be extended an additional ten (10) workdays. Employees exercising bump rights must notify the Company in writing within seventy-two (72) hours of the layoff notification. Section 3: Recall

Employees laid off will be recalled as follows:

3. If no laid off employees in the classification, who are recalled, accept re-employment, then laid off employees outside the classification, who are qualified in the classification, will be recalled as in (1) above.
4. New employees will be hired if no laid off employees in the effected classification accept reemployment as outlined in this article.

ARTICLE 18: ADJUSTMENT OF GRIEVANCES

"Grievances" shall mean and be limited to disputes of difference between the Company and the Union, or employees so represented, with respect to the interpretation or application of any specific provision of this Agreement. Both parties agree to use their best efforts, including informal meetings involving Management, Supervision, Shop Steward, and the Grievant, to resolve matters without resorting to the grievance procedure except that any such meetings shall not extend the time limits set forth in this Article. In the event such informal methods do not resolve the grievance, all grievances shall be reduced to writing and processed in accordance with the following steps.

All grievances beyond Step 1 shall be in writing on grievance forms mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Company, signed by the grieving employee(s), if applicable, and set forth a complete statement of the grievance, the specific provision(s) of the Agreement claimed to have been violated, the facts on which it is based, and the corrective action desired.

In an effort to adjust grievances by mutual agreement, they shall be presented in the following order and within the following time limits:

Step 1: The employee(s), with or without their steward, or a union representative, shall bring a grievance to their Site Manager/supervisor within seven (7) calendar days of a reasonable knowledge of the occurrence. In the event an employee is unavoidably absent due to illness or injury or unavailable due to vacation or other approved reasons, the employee's Union representative may bring the grievance to the Site Manager/supervisor.

Step 2: A written grievance can be taken up by the Shop Steward with the Program Manager or his designee within five (5) working days after the Step 1 meeting, and a meeting or a teleconference will be scheduled within five (5) subsequent working days. If no agreement has been reached within ten (10) working days, the Company will reply in writing. If the written reply is not satisfactory, it may be moved to Step 3 within five (5) working days after receipt of the answer.

Step 3: The Company Labor Relations Representatives or designee, and the Business Representative of the Union shall meet within fourteen (14) working days after receipt of the grievance into a third step. A written reply from the Company will be given to the Union within fourteen (14) working days after the meeting. If no agreement has been reached within fourteen

(14) working days, either party may submit the grievance or dispute to arbitration as covered in ARTICLE 19: ARBITRATION PROCEDURE.

Failure of the Company to act within the time limits set forth in any step shall cause the grievance to proceed to the next step. Failure of the Union to act within the time limits set forth in any step shall cause the grievance to be waived.

Precedents:

A final decision made with respect to any grievance in the first or second step shall apply to that grievance only and shall not become a binding precedent in the case of other grievances, nor a precedent, which shall bind the parties as in interpretation of the Agreement. All settlements must be consistent with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreements of both parties.

Any aggrieved employee and Union representative shall have the right to be present at any stage of the grievance procedure in which the grievance is being considered. No employee may leave the job, take up, or settle a grievance without requesting permission from the immediate supervisor. Such permission will be granted provided it does not retard or interfere with operations or create a hazardous condition. If permission cannot be granted, time limits will be waived until permission is granted. Witnesses called by either party may attend the grievance meeting at any step, subject to the same provisions above outlined for attendance of an aggrieved employee.

The Local Union or its authorized representative shall have the right to examine time sheets and other records pertaining to the computation of compensation of any individual or individuals whose pay is in dispute or other records pertaining to a specific grievance. Compensation will be paid for reasonable time spent discussing or investigating grievances during normal work schedules.

ARTICLE 19: ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

The party choosing to arbitrate shall give written notice to the other party setting forth the matter to be arbitrated. If said notice is not served within the fourteen (14) day period specified in Step 3 of the "Adjustments of Grievance" Section, it shall be deemed that the grievance has been satisfactorily adjusted and the right to arbitrate waived.

In the event the Union or the Company submits a grievance to arbitration, a representative selected by the Union shall meet with a representative selected by the Company within five (5) days of receipt of the above notice and attempt to agree on an arbitrator. In the event the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within five (5) working days, the parties will petition with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for a panel of seven (7) arbitrators admitted to the National Academy of Arbitrators from which the arbitrator shall be chosen. In the latter case, the petitioner has the first right to strike a name; the other party shall then strike a name. This procedure shall continue alternately until one (1) name remains and that person shall be the arbitrator.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties. The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement, nor to substitute his/her discretion for that preserved in the Agreement. The arbitrator shall be bound entirely by the records presented in the form of evidence presented at the hearing and this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties and shall be rendered within ninety (90) days of the hearing. The arbitrator shall have the authority to decide and rule on alleged violations of the National Labor Relations Act raised through the grievance process as a result of a deferral of an unfair labor practice charge by the National Labor Relations Board to the grievance process. The expense and fees of the Arbitration Process shall be equally split by the parties. Such costs shall be limited to the arbitrator's fee and expenses. The cost of any additional services required by either party shall be borne by the party requesting the additional services.

Neither party has the right to request arbitration on any subject matter not specifically covered in this written agreement.

ARTICLE 20: HOURS OF WORK

Section 1: Standard Workweek

The standard pay period will begin at 12:00am Monday and end at 11:59pm Sunday. The standard workweek for each employee shall normally consist of forty (40) hours on five (5) consecutive days per week, Monday through Sunday, between the hours of 6:00am and 6:00pm. Employees will be permitted, with manager's permission, to flex their normal workweek hours to complete forty (40) hours within the pay period.

Section 2: Alternate Work Shifts

Any employee, whose scheduled hours of work fall outside of the normal shift hours defined in Section 1 above, will be paid a shift differential in accordance with ARTICLE 26: PREMIUM PAYMENTS, for time worked outside the standard workweek hours. This provision applies only to scheduled shifts. If an employee voluntarily offers or desires to work an alternate work shift for personal reasons, shift differential will not be paid. This does not preclude one individual from swapping scheduled shifts with another individual and receiving appropriate pay for the shift worked.

Overtime and shift differential will not be paid concurrently.

The Company will make every effort to work with all employees as a team to address individual requirements and other issues which might arise from the implementation of this policy.

Section 3: Alternative Workweek

An employee who is called back by the company to perform work after the end of his shift shall be paid at the straight time rate for the hours actually worked or shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours pay, whichever is greater. ARTICLE 24: VACATION

Section 1: Vacation Accrual

Employees in the Bargaining Unit prior to November 2, 2013, shall be eligible for vacation according to the following schedule:

Years of Service	Hours Accrued (Annually)	Hours Accrued (Monthly)
0 – 1	Up to 40/yr.	3.333
1 – 4	Up to 80/yr.	6.667
5 – 11	Up to 120/yr.	10
12 – 13	Up to 128/yr.	10.666
14	Up to 136/yr.	11.333
15	Up to 160/yr.	13.333

Employees hired into the Bargaining Unit on or after November 2, 2013, shall be eligible for vacation according to the following schedule:

Years of Service	Hours Accrued (Annually)	Hours Accrued (Monthly)
0 – 1	Up to 40/yr.	3.333
1 – 4	Up to 80/yr.	6.667
5 – 15	Up to 120/yr.	10
15	Up to 160/yr.	13.333

Vacation will be accrued monthly for any month in which the employee receives compensation from the Company. This includes hours lost due to temporary disability under Workmen's Compensation. In addition, if an employee returns from a medical leave, inactive status, within ninety (90) calendar days they will receive an adjustment to their base vacation for any monthly accruals missed up to a maximum equal to three (3) monthly accruals at the rate they would have received. Under no circumstances will an employee receive more than three (3) total monthly accrual adjustments in a calendar year nor more than three (3) per medical leave when the leave takes place during parts of two (2) calendar years. An employee whose medical leave exceeds ninety (90) days will not receive an adjustment for accruals missed but will begin to accrue vacation upon their return.

The hours will be granted (available to be taken) the following month. Vacation accrual rates are based on the employee's established anniversary date for vacation eligibility.

Vacation will be scheduled and authorized in consideration of employee preference, projected operating requirements and seniority. All vacation hours will be paid at the employee's current base rate of pay including all pay additives (shift premiums, COLA's, etc.).

Vacation credits will accumulate in an employee's vacation account up to a maximum of two times their annual accrual rate.

There will be no pay-in-lieu of time off for vacation. The intent of this provision is to cause each employee to use the vacation credits awarded for time off.

Employees who leave the active payroll of the Company, except for reasons of death, shall be paid for all vacation earned and deferred up to the time of separation.

In the event of an employee's death the accumulated vacation will be paid out into the employee's estate. New hire employees may take any vacation earned after completion of their ninety (90) day probationary period.

Section 2: Furlough/Forced Vacation

In the circumstances of loss of government funding, stop work orders, in order to avoid layoff and termination of service, the Company may elect to direct employees to charge up to eighty (80) hours of vacation in lieu of layoff. It is within the Company's sole discretion to determine whether to direct use of vacation. Where forced vacation is directed by the company, an employee may substitute available floating holiday time for vacation charged.

- a. Unused/compensable vacation time at the end of the eighty (80) hour directed vacation event will be held by employees on a credited basis and may not be charged in the event of an implemented furlough.

- b. In an event that an employee's compensable vacation time is completely exhausted due to forced vacation charges, an employee may charge "unpaid labor" until returned to work during the period of forced vacation.
- c. An employee may request and be approved for a vacation advance of up to forty (40) hours to be used for forced absence/vacation.
- d. Where conditions develop that permit a recall to active duty during the period of forced vacation, employees must return to work the next scheduled work shift.
- e. Where the period of forced vacation has reached its full term and there has been no contract reached upon which to return the work force to active duty, an employment furlough will be implemented.

Administration of an employment unpaid furlough as an alternative to a termination-of-services will be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Corporate Furlough Policy, HR-04, or its successor, in an identical administrative manner as would be applied to the non-represented members of the work force. The furlough event will terminate by policy, no later than ninety (90) days from implementation.

ARTICLE 25: PERSONAL TIME OFF (PTO)

Upon completion of their probationary period employees shall earn Paid Time Off (PTO) credits at the rate of six point six hundred and sixty-seven (6.667) hours per month.

Up to fifty-six (56) hours of unused PTO may be carried over by the employee into the next year. At no time will an employee be able to have greater than one hundred and thirty-six (136) hours of accrued PTO. Unused PTO is forfeited at separation from employment.

PTO absences may be charged in the lowest chargeable time unit per the time charging/payroll system, up to a maximum of the fully scheduled work shift.

Use of Paid Time Off (PTO):

An employee will be allowed to take PTO credits, not yet accrued, up to the annual maximum referenced above. Payment for PTO shall be at the employee's straight time base rate, including pay additives where applicable. The employee must repay any used, but not yet accrued PTO at the time of termination of service.

Scheduling of Paid Time Off (PTO):

In the event of the use of PTO to cover an absence due to unplanned circumstances, employees are to contact their manager as soon as practicable prior to the beginning of the scheduled work shift. Where this is not possible, contact should be made at the earliest possible opportunity.

In the event of the use of PTO to cover absence due to a planned, personal matter, employees are to schedule for the absence by providing a minimum of ninety-six (96) hours notification (or greater) wherever possible, subject to management approval based on operational requirements.

ARTICLE 26: PREMIUM PAYMENTS

An employee who is scheduled to work any hours between 6:00pm and 6:00am outside of the normal working hours of 6:00am to 6:00pm, Monday through Sunday, will receive a shift premium of four dollars and seventy-five cents ($4.75) per hour above the employee's regular straight time rate for all hours worked during this time period.

ARTICLE 27: BENEFITS

Section 1: Employee Medical Premium and Opt-Out Options

The Company agrees to continue to offer medical plan(s) to bargaining unit employees on the same basis and to the same extent as employees not represented by a labor organization. "Same basis as" applies to plans and coverage offered, effective dates, extent of benefits, employee contribution and/or co-pays, and any changes to any aspect of such health insurance plans and other benefits.

Employees may participate in the following Company sponsored benefit plans that are currently offered, at the cost incurred by the Company, including the:

- Dental Plan
- Vision Plan
- Basic Life Insurance
- Optional Life Insurance
- Accidental Death & Dismemberment Insurance: Option to purchase coverage for employees and/or eligible dependents.
- Long-Term Disability
- Flexible Spending Account
- Travel Accident Insurance: For applicable Company travel. Company paid.

Short Term Disability and Employee Assistance Plan (EAP) are provided at no cost to the employee.

The Company shall pass through improvements, modifications, changes to plans and/or employee premiums to these plans at any time, both during the term of this Agreement and after its expiration. Any elimination contemplated to these plans will only be a result of the Company no longer offering the specific plan. If and when these situations arise, the Company will notify the Union prior to taking such action.

Section 2: Opt Out

Effective the first pay period of 2020, full-time employees who Opt-Out of Medical provided benefits will receive a taxable amount of two hundred dollars ($200.00) per week for the duration of the contract, and still be provided Short Term Disability – Option A, and purchase Vision and/or Dental at one hundred percent (100%) of the cost of the insurance.

The Opt-out option would become ineffective and subject to renegotiation in the event it is determined that the arrangement may result in non-compliance with the Affordable Care Act. In order to be eligible for the Opt-Out credit, individuals who Opt-Out of Medical benefits may be required to certify, on an annual basis, that they are receiving coverage elsewhere. If such negotiations fail to modify such plan(s), in an effort to avoid the excise tax thresholds, then the Company has the right to modify the plans up to the point where the premium falls below the threshold but no further than administratively practicable.

Recognizing the impending implementation of health care legislation, it is the intent of both the Company and Union that none of the benefits provided in connection with the health insurance benefits (e.g. medical, health care spending accounts and any applicable benefit subject to the excise tax) will cause the application of an excise or High Cost Coverage Excise Tax (Cadillac Plan Tax) as a result of providing such benefits with respect to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (the "PPACA") or any other healthcare taxation legislation that may evolve over the life of this Agreement.

The Company reserves the right, both during the term of this Agreement and after its expiration, to amend, modify and/or alter the health insurance benefits provided solely for the purpose of avoiding implementation of a High Cost Coverage Excise Tax pursuant to PPACA.

In keeping with the intent of the parties, in the event legislation is enacted modifying the Cadillac Plan Tax or replacing the Cadillac Plan Tax with another revenue generating vehicle that has a financial impact to the Company (Cadillac Plan Tax Replacement or Replacement), the provisions of this Section shall be equally applicable to the Replacement.

If the actual rates for any plan(s) are shown to be above the thresholds for triggering the tax or Replacement, the Company has the right to modify the plan(s) up to the point where the premium falls below the threshold but no further than administratively practicable.

In the event a future federal, state, or local law relating to medical care or medical benefits (a "Health Benefits Law") would impose a new mandate, tax, or other financial liability on the Company or otherwise increase Company costs beyond the costs of providing the medical benefits covered by this Agreement (the "Negotiated Medical Plans"), then the Company has the right to make modifications to the Negotiated Medical Plans in order to avoid any additional cost/financial impact to the Company beyond the costs of providing the Negotiated Medical Plans.

The Company agrees to provide the Union with notice, in advance of the implementation of any changes made to health plan benefits, as described above.

Section 3: Performance Sharing Plan (401K)

The Company shall continue the Lockheed Martin Performance Sharing Plan (401K) with a four percent (4%) contribution on behalf of the employees. The total amount of an employees' 401K contribution will not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) or the established IRS maximum contribution levels.

Section 4: Educational Assistance

Employees will be reimbursed according to the Company Educational Assistance Policy.

ARTICLE 29: EFFECT OF LAW

In the event that now or hereafter there is any State or Federal law or any directive order, rule or regulations made pursuant, thereto, which is in conflict with any provision or provisions of any agreement between the parties, the same shall supersede such provision or provisions and thereafter shall govern and control the relations and conduct of the parties so long as such law, directive, order, rule or regulations shall remain in force and effect. In the event that this or any other agreement existing between the parties hereto, now, or thereafter requires the approval of any Government authority before becoming effective, the same will and shall be subject to such approval. Furthermore, it is mutually agreed that within thirty (30) calendar days after such provision or provisions become unlawful, the parties shall meet to discuss a modification of such provision or provisions to comply with the law.
