provided bump rights to equal or lower classifications within the same job family, if they can demonstrate the ability to perform at the lower classification if they provide written notification within seventy-two (72) hours of notification of layoff. If an employee has previously accepted a promotion in accordance with Article 13, Promotions, to a job classification outside his original job family, that employee will retain seniority bump rights to his original job family or classification in the event of a layoff from his current position. All probationary and part-time employees will be laid off prior to any full time employee layoff with seniority rights.

- e) Refusal to be recalled to a part-time position will not forfeit an employee's recall rights as established.

ARTICLE 18: ADJUSTMENT OF GRIEVANCES

SECTION 18.1: DEFINITION

For the purpose of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as any complaint or dispute arising out of the interpretation or application of a specific Article and Section of this Agreement during the term of this Agreement or extensions thereof as to events or incidents affecting the Bargaining Unit. No grievance as defined above shall be considered under the grievance procedure unless it is presented as provided below. Both parties agree to use their best efforts, including informal meetings involving Management, Supervision, Shop Steward, and Grievant, to resolve matters without resorting to the grievance procedure. For purposes of computing time under any of the provisions of this Article, "days" shall mean working days, excluding weekend days and holidays.

A grievance may be filed by an employee, the Union, and or the Company. If the Union files the grievance, the adversely affected employee(s) shall be identified.

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent an employee from resolving any problem consistent with this Agreement with or without the presence of a Union representative.

SECTION 18.2: PROCEDURAL STEPS

A grievance as defined in Section 18.1: Definition, shall be considered in accordance with the following grievance procedure except that no grievance shall be considered which has not been presented at and in accordance with Step One of this Grievance Procedure within ten (10) days after the occurrence of the facts or circumstances constituting the grievance arose or when the Union, the employee or the Company first became aware, or should have become aware, of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance:

Step One: Any employee covered by this Agreement, and the appropriate Union Steward shall present his or her grievance to the Site Manager. To be timely and properly filed, a grievance must be presented in writing within ten (10) days after the occurrence of the facts or circumstances constituting the grievance arose. The grievance document shall clearly indicate that the matter is a grievance and shall identify the Article(s) and Section(s) of the Agreement that were allegedly violated, date of alleged issue, nature of the grievance, date filed, and requested remedy. The Site Manager will hold a meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the grievance consisting of the shop steward and/or the affected employee. The Site Manager shall give a written response to the Steward within ten (10) days after the meeting was held. If the grievance is not resolved at Step One, the Steward shall forward the grievance to the Union Business Representative.

Step Two: If the grievance is not resolved at Step One, the grievance shall be presented by the Business Representative to the Program Manager within ten (10) days after the Company's Step One representative has responded to the grievance or the date on which the response is due. Within ten (10) days of the filing of the grievance with the Program Manager, the Program Manager may conduct a meeting, which may be attended by the Business Representative, the Steward and the affected employee. Within ten (10) days after the meeting is held or after the grievance was received if no meeting is held, the Company shall notify the Business Representative of its decision in writing.

Step Three: If agreement is not reached at Step Two with the Program Manager, the Corporate Advisor to Human Resources shall consider the grievance on presentation by the employee-grievant and the Union representative or the Union representative in the manner set forth in Step Two.

Step Four: If agreement is not reached at the Corporate Human Resources level, the Union or the Company wishing to take the grievance to arbitration shall request mediation in writing from the office of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service within ten (10) days of the corporate representative or designee's decision. Mediation under this section is required before arbitration. The request for mediation must be served in writing by the party requesting it simultaneously on the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service and the other party within this time period as a condition for processing the grievance up to and including arbitration. The mediation must be scheduled at a time and location mutually agreeable to the parties. The grievant will be compensated for any lost work time by the Company for any mediation, which occurs during the grievant's scheduled working hours. Grievants working the second and third shifts will be similarly compensated by reduced or eliminated shifts, with pay. If the Shop Steward's presence is requested by the Union, such request for time off without pay to attend the mediation will not be unreasonably denied.

Step Five: If settlement is not reached at mediation, the Union or the Company shall, if at all, within ten (10) days after mediation, forward the grievance for binding arbitration with and pursuant to the rules of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS") with a copy of such demand to the other party. The jurisdiction of the arbitrator shall not exceed those subjects and remedies identified herein at Article 18 in the Step One grievance document.

SECTION 18.3: ARBITRATION

If the Company raises an issue of procedural arbitrability at any time, a separate hearing shall be scheduled for the Arbitrator to consider that issue only, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing two hearing dates will be scheduled unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing by the parties. The hearing on arbitrability shall be conducted according to the FMCS' rules on expedited arbitration. If the arbitrator determines that the grievance is not arbitrable, the grievance shall be denied and it shall not be processed any further, nor shall any cancellation fees be incurred by either party. If the Arbitrator determines that the grievance is arbitrable, a hearing shall be held for the Arbitrator to consider the merits of the grievance. If the Company or Union raises an issue of substantive arbitrability, processing of the grievance shall be stayed unless and until a court determines that the grievance is arbitrable.

- a) The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall have the authority only to decide disputes concerning the interpretation or application of the specific Section(s) and Article(s) of the Agreement listed in the Step Two grievance document to the facts of the particular grievance presented to him or her and shall be without authority to decide matters specifically excluded or not included in this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall have no power to engage in any form of interest arbitration. The Arbitrator may not issue any award, which provides any monetary remedy which includes any time before ten (10) days before the grievance was filed.
- b) Should the Union want employees to be a witness at any arbitration hearing, the Union will be responsible for any lost pay incurred by the employee. The Company may stagger the release of employees so as to not interfere with operations.
- c) No steward or grievant will be paid for time spent preparing for or attending any arbitration hearing. The Steward and employee will be granted reasonable time off without pay to attend such a hearing with as much advance notice of the meeting or hearing as is reasonably possible.
- d) The award of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties to the extent provided by law.
- e) The Arbitrator's decision and award shall be issued to the parties within thirty (30) days of the close of the arbitration hearing and post-hearing briefs.
- f) The cost of the arbitration, which shall include the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator, shall be borne equally between the Company and the Union. No party shall pay any fees owed to the other party's own representatives and/or wages to the other party's witnesses for time lost.

- g) Grievances of the same nature involving multiple employees will be consolidated and considered as one grievance except for termination of employment. Conversely, in the absence of mutual consent of the parties, an Arbitrator may not be presented with or rule upon more than one grievance.
- h) It is the desire of the parties to settle grievances at the lowest possible level. Therefore, all steps shall be required before a grievance can proceed to arbitration unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing.

SECTION 18.4: DEADLINES, TERMINATED EMPLOYEES, ETC.

Failure of an employee or the Union to meet any deadline at any step of this grievance procedure shall constitute a waiver of the grievance and no further action may be taken on it. Time is of the essence, but any time limits in this Article can be waived by the written mutual agreement of the parties. Failure of the Company to meet any deadline at any step of this grievance procedure shall automatically move the grievance to the next step.

Terminated employees disputing the grounds of their termination will be required to file their grievances in the initial instance at Step Two.

A grievance initiated by the Company shall be discussed with the designated Business Representative and may thereafter be submitted to mediation by the Company within ten (10) days. The demand for arbitration shall be in writing and a copy sent to the Union Business Representative.

A waiver of the time limitations by either the Company or the Union in one or more instances shall not be considered by an arbitrator in determining arbitrability when raised by the Company.

For purposes of computing time under any of the provisions of this Article, “days” shall mean working days, excluding weekend days and holidays.

ARTICLE 19: HOURS OF WORK

The normal workweek will begin at 12:00:01 a.m., Monday and end at 12:00 Midnight the following Sunday. The normal workweek for each employee shall consist of five (5) consecutive days per week. The company reserves the right to adjust the normal workweek based on student throughput and contractual commitments. However, qualifications and skills to perform the work will override seniority.

SECTION 19.1: SCHEDULE

An employee schedule will be one in which the employee normally works a forty (40) hour, five (5) days per week. A minimum of twelve (12) hours off time will be scheduled between shifts. Three (3) calendar days' notice will normally be given for schedule posting and changes except on occasions when immediate support is necessary to meet contractual requirements. In the circumstances where a three (3) day notice is not given the work schedule will not be altered solely to avoid paying overtime. Work schedules other than those as outlined above may be arranged by mutual agreement by the Company, the Union, and the employees. With the concurrence of the employee's manager (or his designee), employees on a regular schedule may alter their daily work schedule to complete forty (40) hours in less than five (5) days.
